

/etc

An extra curricular seminar series on the practical aspects of novel computing technologies.

/etc is a new seminar series intended to provide some understanding of novel computing technologies from a practical perspective. This short seminar series will comprise of four talks to be delivered by experienced practitioners; it is intended to give the audience an appreciation of the capabilities of these technologies and some basic understanding of how they are used to solve real world problems.

The series will be run through the month of February according to the schedule below.

The series is primarily intended for final year and postgraduate students, but is open to all.

Schedule

Feb 3 rd 2010	Everything you wanted to know about Cloud Computing but were afraid to ask Joe Drumgoole , CEO, Cloudsplit
Feb 10 th 2010	Using Google App Engine with Python Nick Johnson , Developer Programs Engineer, App Engine, Google
Feb 17 th 2010	Using Ruby on Rails for rapid web app development Paul Campbell , Maker, UseKetchup.com
Feb 24 th 2010	An Overview of Android: Google's Evolving Mobile Platform Katsiaryna Naliuka , Technical Team Lead, TCD/NDRC

Time/Venue

All talks will commence at 6pm and will take place in the Lecture Theatre in the School of Computer Science and Informatics in UCD.

Further Information

More information is available at <http://www.csi.ucd.ie/etc>